“ Terri was a true and caring friend. To know Terri truly was to love her. There were so many wonderful things about Terri that I will deeply miss - her generosity, her great sense of humor, and the amazing stories she could tell. Most of all, I will miss hearing her deep, wonderful laugh. I feel blessed to have had her in my life.

“ Tyler, Pam and family, I do not have the words at my command to tell you how much this special lady meant to me. She was one of only a few people I could call a true friend. She was faithful, loyal and always there for me. My only regret is that there was not more time with her. I will miss her dearly and will carry her memory with me always. She taught me how to laugh at myself and find the humor in life's most difficult situations. I had told her I was a bit jealous because she beat me to the big party in the sky. I know your hearts are heavy at this time and my sincere sympathy is with you all. May God bless you and comfort you.

“ Tyler, Pam, and Family. I was just shocked to read this about Terri. What a great friend through the years- where did our time go? I haven't got to see Terri since Ann's funeral, but really enjoyed our visit. I'll forever treasure the memories we made, and the cooking apron she gave me when I last saw her. Terri was a true friend among friends- she would help anyone, anyway she could. I'll miss, but never forget that infectious laugh of hers. Rest in peace dear friend! Glen Fox (Foxy to her)
