“ Margaret and Carmen, I am truly sorry for your loss. Tina was always a very considerate person. When I did her hair she was so appreciative and always genuine. I can remember in home-ec class getting to cook and sew together. Boy now that I look back, I feel sorry fir Mrs. Norvill! It was always an adventure for all of us silly girls! I wish I could do something or say something to make the hurt go away. Unfortunatly Tina is the winner! She is in the best place anyone of us would love to be. No more hurting and she is with the rest of the lucky members of our families and thank God for those blessings. Love you all and I will keep you in our prayers.
