“ To Dearest Velma (mamam) we had the opportunity to have met you and my did you leave a lasting impression on us. You were one of the most affectionate and loving person I have ever come across. You loved each and everyone like your own. I will always remember your free spirit who loved life and enjoyed each moment always enjoying and never complained. You will be missed by many people and especially your son Jerry who was always so worried he had never done enough. Jerry my heart goes out to you for all the time and love given as a son which she will hold forever. Our condolences to you and all the family from James, Susie, Alissia and Rene Burch in Australia we love you mama forever xxxx
