“ Vic was one of the most consistent examples of Christian witness I have ever encountered. His love for God and compassion for people were obvious. I am a better person because of his example.

“ Victor was my Step Grandfather, but always treated me like his own Grandson. I always thought of him as my Grandfather as well. He taught me so many things while growing up. I learned to work on cars while working at the car lot while in high school. He tried to teach me patience. He was definitely the best example of patience and a true Christian I have ever met. I have so many fond memories of Victor it?s hard to put them down here. There was always a big container of Legos in the closet for me to play with when I was a little boy and later he helped me to fix up my cars or ?hot rods? as he called them. He was one of the best people I have ever met in life... one of my biggest influences.

“ Margaret, What a great void the passing of Uncle Victor leaves in our family. His love, compassion and willingness to help his extended family in times of need, caused us to regard him as our Patriarch. He helped save my mother and father from financial ruin by taking care of the farm while my father was ill. He helped Mary Ann and I get our first new car. When my father passed away flew out to California and helped us all to get back to Lindsay for the memorial. Recently, when I was very ill with cancer, he and Margaret made two trips to California to see if they could help.

Above all, I new him as a person with great faith in his savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He boldly witness to others because he wanted them to enjoy this great salvation. We are grateful for the great impact he has had on our lives.

“ Margaret and Family, You know how much I loved Vic. He was one of the nicest men I have ever known. He was my prayer warrior. The way he lived his life was such a witness of his faith in God. I will miss his quick smile and wave. I feel blessed to have known him and called him my friend. May you be comforted in the days to come by all your sweet memories of your life together.

“ Margaret, Jim, and Annie. May God continue to be with you all in this time of loss. Vic was my Boss, my Friend, my brother in Christ. Working for Vic was not a job it was a lesson in life, that I'll never forget. His service to God and his Church was a lesson for all. Vic never wanted credit for anything he did, and he did plenty for our community. Vic's Life will live on through those he touched. I was blessed with four fathers, my Heavenly Father my Dad, father in Law and Vic Cacy.
