

Virgil Lee Adams

April 8, 1918 - March 21, 2007

Virgil Lee Adams, beloved husband, father, great and grandfather, passed away on March 21st in the year of our Lord, 2007. Virgil was 88 years old. Virgil was born on April 8, 1918, to Edgar and Emma Adams, in Lindsay, Oklahoma.

He is survived by his wife of 68 years, Christine E. Adams, whom he married on November 25, 1939.

Virgil is also survived by three daughters; Linda Skinner, Marilyn Riddles and Mary Peelman. He leaves behind one brother, Calvin Adams, his grandchildren; Tray Skinner, Connie Skinner, Heather Riddles, Brian Peelman, Steven Peelman, Gary Phillips, Bobby Phillips, and Don Phillips. He is also survived by 17 great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by both of his parents and one daughter, Marjorie Phillips.

Virgil was a devout member of the Lindsay Church of Christ, and his faith steered his life. As a young man, Virgil and his parents, and siblings, farmed in Lindsay. Later Virgil worked, and retired from the Civil Service, as a machinist at Tinker Field, AFB. Virgil took great pride in his work, and numerous professional achievements.

Our family wishes to thank the employees of the Lindsay Hospital for their effort, and kindness. Services will be held at 10:00 a.m., Saturday March 24th, at the Lindsay Church of Christ.

Virtue, honesty, and humility, were Virgil's garments. Happiness, love, and forgiveness, were Virgil's gift to others.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of B. G. Boydston Funeral Home. Condolences may be sent to the Adams family online at www.boydstonfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

DK

“ Virgil was a good one, for sure. I'll always remember a couple of events pertaining to Virgil, that will make me laugh. One involving his big comuter station wagon, the other, involving both of our tractors. Our thoughts and prayers are with Christine and family.
Dean

Dean Kuykendall - March 24, 2007 at 12:00 AM

LG

“ My Dad has been gone several years now, he new Virgil as RATSAdams Virgil always had a story to tell me about he and Dad in there younger days. I did not know him that well, but I'll bet their telling some good ones right now. May God comfort your family in your time of loss.

Lester Grumbles - March 23, 2007 at 12:00 AM

DA

“ Bobby and Family, You are in our thoughts and prayers. Dwight & Susan

Dwight & Susan Anderson - March 22, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Virgil Lee Adams

March 22, 2007 at 12:00 AM