“ Dear Wayne and Melissa , We are so sorry to hear of your lose. We don't know of the right words to let you know how much our hearts go out to you. I was told when I lost my own Mother and Father that God only takes the best and that the work he had for them here on earth was over and it was time for them to go and rest , and thats the same thing with your Dad too. He is no longer in any pain or anything and now he can watch over you and his Grandbabies and the rest of the family, you have a new angel watching over you. If there is anything we can do for you or if you just need to talk you know we are here for you night or day. We love you and will keep you and the family in our hearts and prayers.
